THE HOUSE OF Duchess Anne

© Françoise & Patrick Gauthier / Gauthier Mairies

Nestled in a picturesque alleyway, this marvellous stone house is typical of 15th Century private mansions.

OF THE HOUSE Poets AND Writers

This 17th Century house listed as a historical monument is one of Saint-Malo's most ancient. Its half-timbered architecture reminds of captain's quarters in the sterns of ancient ships. Built from recycled ship wood, it harbours the International House of Poets and Writers.

THE Cathedral

Built in the roman style from the 12th Century to the 18th Century, it houses the graves of Jacques Cartier and Duguay-Trouin.

OF THE HOUSE Quebec

A symbol of friendship and a tribute to navigator Jacques Cartier who discovered Canada, this historic building was provided by the city of Saint-Malo for the government of Quebec. It presents visitors with an incursion into the Great Province and organises meetings and exhibitions every year.

A Corsairs abode

A listed historical monument, The Asfeld hotel was built in the 18th Century by François-Auguste Magon, a rich and powerful ship-owner and one of many 'gentlemen of Saint-Malo'.
